

Calling all educators!
Register for edcamp MetroDC !

edcampmetrodc.org

Are you interested in FREE professional development that is innovative, informal, conversational, participant-led, hands-on, relevant, and FUN?

When: April 8, 2017, 8:30-1:00

Where: KIPP DC Shaw Campus:

421 P Street NW

Washington, DC 20001

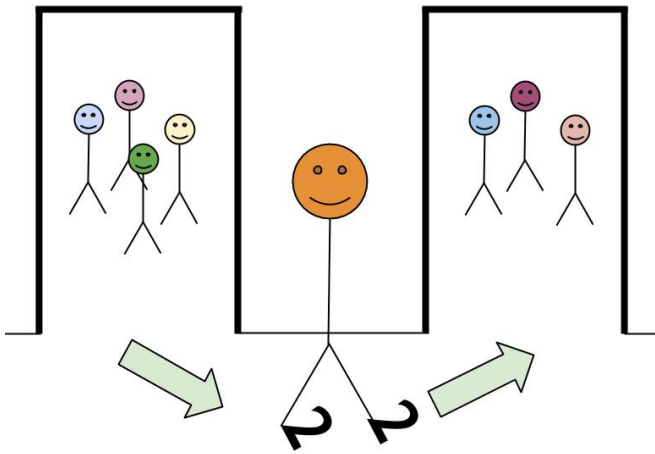

Who: All educators or those interested in the state of education

edcamps are:

- free
- non-commercial and conducted with a vendor-free presence
- hosted by an organization interested in furthering the edcamp mission
- made up of sessions determined on the day of the event
- events where anyone who attends can be a presenter
- reliant on the “law of two feet” that encourages participants to find a session that meets their needs

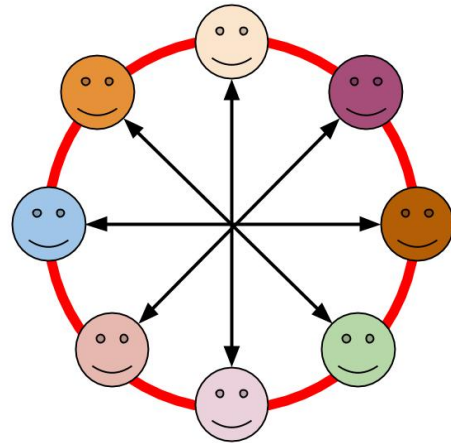

Why should you attend edcamp MetroDC?

Personalize Your PD

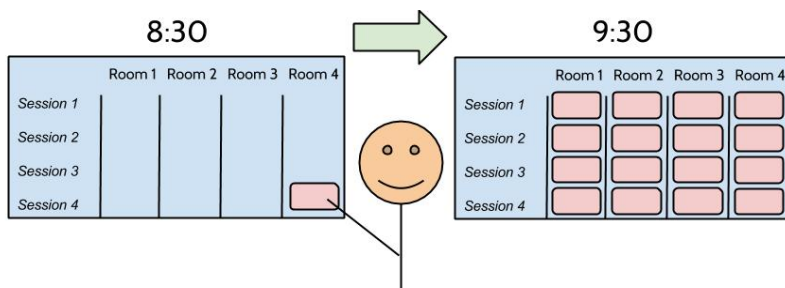

The law of two feet encourages participants to find a session that meets their needs.

Network with Other Educators

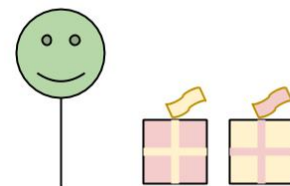

Edcamps are attended by passionate local educators, librarians, school leaders and more.

Share your Expertise

*Sessions are determined on the day of the event.
Anyone can lead a discussion.*

Win Raffle Prizes

Edcamps provide a vendor free presence, but are supported by sponsors.

Register at edcampmetrodc.org